Connecting Services for PART Routes:

Connecting Service from PART 1:

HART: The HART Danbury-Brewster shuttle bus is available from Monday-Friday from 5:50AM-9:19PM. Bus stops at the Brewster Railroad Station on Route 6 (Main Street). This bus will take you into Danbury and free transfers within the HART system are available.

Fares: One Way- $1.50, Senior/Disabled-.75, Students-$1.10

Phone Number- (203)-748-2034

Web: www.hartransit.com

Metro North Railroad: MNRR is accessible via the Brewster RR Station on Route 6 (Main Street). This service can bring you as far south as Grand Central Station in NYC and as far north as Wassaic. Among the main stops going south are Croton Falls, Katonah, Mount Kisco, Chappaqua, White Plains, Mount Vernon West, Fordham Rd. (The Bronx), Harlem 125th St. and Grand Central. Among the main stops going north are Southeast, Patterson, Pawling, Wingdale, Dover Plains and Wassaic.

Fares: One Way peak to Grand Central- $17.75, off peak- $13.25, Senior/Disabled- $8.75 (note: this fare is not available for AM peak trains going south). Be advised that all tickets purchased on the train are subject to an additional surcharge (this surcharge does not apply to Senior/Disabled tickets purchased on the train). Tickets can be purchased via ticket machines located in the overpass or by visiting the ticket office (office hours are 6:10AM-1:40PM Monday-Friday, office is closed from 11-20AM-11:40AM)

Phone Number: 511 (ask for Metro North Railroad). This has automated info on schedules, such as telling you when the next three trains you can catch to get to your destination are arriving.

Connecting Service from PART 2:

Bee Line (Westchester County): the Route 16 local bus (Peekskill/Jefferson Valley/Baldwin Place) connects to stops noted in table above.

Fares (Coins only if paying in cash): One Ride- $2.50, Senior/Disabled- $1.25, Paper Transfers are free). You can also pay by using a MetroCard for the same fares as cash.

Phone Number: (914)-813-7777

Web: <http://transportation.westchestergov.com/bee-line>

Connecting Service from PART 3:

Metro North Railroad: MNRR is accessible via the Patterson RR Station on Front St. This is on a one track line connecting Southeast with Wassaic. Service is available to Southeast and points south (Westchester/Bronx/NYC) as well as Wassaic and points north. Service for this stop runs less frequently so it is recommended that if going south you should utilize PART 1 and use the Brewster station instead.

Note: There is no connecting service for PART 5.
